now,smell the hate that you left on me..... bring the peace that you need oh,i feel the chair splits underneath and my head full of thoughts i can't go on my fragile mind blinded by tears what a mess when you're gone the curse on my tongue,the bliss in my arms tears of blood and sweat of all that you get you've been broken by little scare i've been broken by you so i fall,so
deep in your hair
