i see the setting sun burn in your eyes i see the rising moon that makes you die inside your words have no mean to me but it doesn't matter cause you'll stay up forever,waiting for me i swear i'll be there for you you cry the sadness,i take my madness but..... i just want a star to shine upon my face my time i don't want believe in you
you say i'm totally blind cause i can't see the darkness in my mind
i don't want believe in you
but i do.....
